Minutes:

Using a PowerPoint Presentation which was submitted for the record, BECKY SPRAY, Office of Administrative Services, gave a brief report. This grant is an opportunity for the City to utilized federal stimulus funds. In order to access the funds, the City is required to apply as part of block of jurisdictions which include City of North Las Vegas, City of Henderson, City of Mesquite and Clark County. A Memorandum of Understanding between all jurisdictions has already been approved and the City of Las Vegas will act as the fiscal agent.

MS. SPRAY briefly explained the funding breakdown, noting that the recommended funding formula had changed. Regional meetings had been held to discuss funding allocations to each jurisdiction and each jurisdiction had at least two priority projects funded. In general, grant funds will be used for programs, software, courtroom equipment and 40 contract full-time and part-time positions.

MS. SPRAY requested Council direction on the request from Clark County that funds also be used for a District Attorney (DA) position within Clark County. This DA position will be dedicated to vice crimes and funding this position will require the elimination of a Victim Witness Advocate position within the City Attorney's Office.

CITY ATTORNEY BRAD JERBIC expressed his support of the request. The DA's focus would be on vice crimes involving children, but he or she could prosecute vice crimes that involved women if time permitted. MAYOR GOODMAN stated he would support Clark County's request with the understanding that the DA position would be dedicated to vice crimes involving children.

LIEUTENANT KAREN HUGHES, Vice Section, assured the Council that this DA would be assigned to the Special Victims Unit. She explained that child pandering cases are very complicated and require a DA who is very knowledgeable of the sub-culture. She stated that the DA would be very busy, despite the narrow focus on the exploitation of children.

CITY MANAGER ELIZABETH FRETWELL suggested that the District Attorney's Office submit reports to her office so the Council can monitor the prosecution and progress of those specific cases.
